Dues include membership in the Frederick County Building Industry Association (FCBIA), Maryland Building Industry Association (MBIA), and the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB). Payments for dues are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for federal tax purposes. They may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses, subject to an exclusion for the lobbying activity by FCBIA, MBIA, and the NAHB; 19% of the total is not deductible.

FCBIA CODE OF ETHICS

The Frederick County Building Industry Association promotes professionalism and integrity, and members MUST:

1. Conduct business affairs with professionalism and skill.
2. Keep honesty as their guiding business policy.
3. Meet all financial obligations in a responsible manner.
4. Comply with the spirit and letter of business contracts, and manage employees, subcontractors, and suppliers with fairness and honor.
5. Keep informed regarding public policies and other essential information that affect their business interests and those of the building industry as a whole.
6. Support all sound legislative proposals affecting the building industry and the people they serve.
7. Comply, both in letter and in spirit, with the rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies.
8. Not perform, or cause to be performed, any act which would tend to reflect negatively on, or bring into disrepute any part of the industry served by this association.
9. Support and abide by the decisions of the association promoting and enforcing the code of ethics.

Members assume the responsibilities in this Code of Ethics freely and solemnly and are mindful that these responsibilities are a part of their obligations as members of the Frederick County Building Industry Association.
